IHM is a Stewardship Parish

"In this period of crisis today, it is important not to turn in on ourselves, burying our own talent, our spiritual, intellectual, and material riches, everything that the Lord has given us; but, rather to open ourselves, to be supportive, to be attentive to others. Set your stakes on great ideals, the ideals that enlarge the heart, the ideals of service that make your talents fruitful. Life is not given to us to be jealously guarded for ourselves, but is given to us so that we may give it in turn."

- Pope Francis,

The Offertory Amending a Remnant of Covid

The Liturgical Change – Passing the Basket

At the time of Covid, during the offertory, in order to help people feel comfortable and decrease the spreading of germs, we asked those who wished to place an offering in the collection basket to signal the ushers for the basket, and those who did not wish to place an offering in the collection basket to decline from taking it. Now, however, beginning this weekend, we would like the collection basket to be passed down every aisle, so that it has the opportunity to pass every person.

The Reasoning and Importance of the Offertory

Although it is a brief moment in the Mass, the offertory truly has great spiritual significance. On the outside, it looks like this is simply a time to set up the altar, take up a collection, and bring forward the bread and wine so that we can continue with Mass. Yet the offertory is much more than that.

When the gifts are brought to the altar, we are not just presenting bread, wine, and a collection. In a real way, this moment highlights how we are bringing our entire selves to the altar! As you see the people walking down the aisle towards the sanctuary, we also place our joys and sorrows, our friends and families, our mundane daily tasks and our unique moments... we bring our entire lives to the altar as an offering and sacrifice for the Lord.

Because of this, some liturgists have called the entire Mass an offertory. From the beginning to the end of the Mass, we are offering ourselves to God. The more we are able to do this, the more we are able to offer our lives to God as a whole. This actually results in a beautiful cycle – we learn to offer our lives to God at the Mass, so we might grow in our ability to offer ourselves to the Lord in our daily lives, which helps us even more to offer our lives to God at the Mass, and so on.

Back to Passing the Basket

Because of this, even though we changed our practices of passing the collection basket for practical reasons during the time of Covid, we would now like to return to everyone participating in passing the basket. Even if you do not have a monetary offering, this still contains a deep and important spiritual aspect. It is a symbolic action that helps you to place yourself in the basket, and allows you, yourself, to be brought as an offering to the Lord.
