IHM is a Stewardship Parish

"In this period of crisis today, it is important not to turn in on ourselves, burying our own talent, our spiritual, intellectual, and material riches, everything that the Lord has given us; but, rather to open ourselves, to be supportive, to be attentive to others. Set your stakes on great ideals, the ideals that enlarge the heart, the ideals of service that make your talents fruitful. Life is not given to us to be jealously guarded for ourselves, but is given to us so that we may give it in turn."

- Pope Francis,
to an audience on April 24, 2013

Our Lenten Penance

The season of Lent is upon us. During the season of Lent, it is common that we either give up or take on some sort of practice or penance. This is meant to help us overcome our vices, grow in virtue, and improve our spiritual lives as a whole. Therefore, as we consider our penitential practices this Lent, I thought it might be helpful to offer a bit of a reflection/guide in our discernment so as to more fully benefit from whatever we choose to do. This guide involves a 4-step process.

Step 1: Choose one of the deadly sins in which you struggle with the most.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church names 7 deadly sins, also known as capital sins (CCC 1866). These sins are pride, anger (wrath), lust, gluttony, sloth, greed (avarice), and envy. To be able to name which one of these sins is most prominent in our life can give us great direction in how exactly we wish to give up sin and grow in holiness.

Step 2: Know the source of temptation of our sin.

Traditionally, there are 3 sources of temptation: the world, the flesh, and the devil. It is important to know which of these sources is the root of our sin. Generally, the sins of envy and greed have been associated with temptations of the world. The sins of sloth, gluttony, and lust usually stem from temptations of the flesh. The sins of anger and pride have historically been said to be rooted in temptations from the devil.

Step 3: Know how the sources of temptation relate to the 3 forms of atonement/penance.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church recalls 3 forms of penance/atonement for sin. These 3 forms are prayer, fasting, and almsgiving (CCC 1434). These can also be found in Scripture, in Matthew 6:1-18, and Tobit 12:8. Each of these forms of penance can be quite helpful in combatting particular sins and temptations. To counter temptations of the world, almsgiving is helpful. Normally we think of almsgiving as some form of monetary donation; however, this can also be done simply by going through one's home and finding other items, such as food, clothes, or even other objects that might benefit another more than ourselves, and donating them to a local organization. To deny temptations of the flesh, fasting is a good practice. This is often done through giving up a certain food, beverage, or even snacks between meals or meals themselves. In denying temptations from the devil, it is important to rely on prayer. There are many prayers, chaplets, litanies, novenas, and other devotions in the Catholic Church. Simple reading of Scripture or other spiritual writing can be quite fruitful as well.

Step 4: Choose which penance is most beneficial for you.

Now we can put this all together. Once a person is able to name his/her primary vice, one can then discern the source of temptation of that vice, and through this, know which form of penance will be best (see chart below). It should be noted that this reflection is based on general norms; they are not necessarily applicable in every situation. Nonetheless, if we can be intentional in the way we enter into our Lenten practices and penances, hopefully this can have a great and long-lasting effect on our spiritual lives.

I would encourage you to spend some time in prayer and discernment as to how we wish to enter into this upcoming season. With this, may we all have a very fruitful and blessed Lent!

Pastor

Stewardship of Treasure

CRS Rice Bowl is the Lenten program of Catholic Relief Services, the official international humanitarian agency of the Catholic community in the United States (US). Through CRS Rice Bowl, faith communities in every diocese throughout the US put their faith into action through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. What is Almsgiving? As a good Samaritan when we see our sisters or brothers suffering, we are moved by compassion and want to help them. We are inspired to give. Almsgiving is central to how we practice Lent. It flows from prayer and fasting. We reflect on the needs of the world and how God is calling us to meet those needs through prayer and making room for the needs of others—and for the Holy Spirit to work within us—through fasting. It is our recognition and a personal commitment to act, we give alms. What are alms? Alms are money or goods that are given to...or other acts of charity performed for those in need. Catholics look to the Catechism, which says that almsgiving is “a witness to fraternal charity” and “a work of justice pleasing to God.” crsricebowl.org

During our Lenten journey with CSR we will meet people in Uganda, El Salvador and Indonesia who are working hard to overcome the challenges of hunger and the impact of climate change. Pick up your family's CRS Rice Bowl from the table located in the back of church as you leave mass today. During the 40 days of Lent, we will reflect on our connectedness as one family in Christ and work together to ensure our sisters and brothers worldwide can thrive.

Reflect on how the Lenten pillars of prayer, fasting and almsgiving can guide your journey and how the Eucharist helps us to live in solidarity with our sisters and brothers around the world. Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more and read this week's Story of Hope.

Catechesis of the Good Shephard

We began a new liturgical season on Ash Wednesday: Lent! Lent is a time of preparation for the greatest feast of Easter. Again, in the atrium, the prayer table is changed to reflect this time of preparation. We use a purple cloth to cover the prayer table and adorn the table with things that will help us to focus on Lent. For us adults, we know Lent is a means for making a sacrifice by giving something up, but for our 3–6-year-old children, it is harder to process. As they grow older, it becomes easier to understand.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

To help understand this meaning in the atrium, our children will hear the parable of the Good Shepherd. The parable of the Good Shepherd helps us focus on a deep meaning of laying down one’s life. With our early readings and shared reflections with young children we omit the verses that pertain to evil and the wolf (which are reflected on later as the child grows older and becomes more aware of good and bad) and focus on the ordinary ways the Good Shepherd shows extraordinary love every day. First, by knowing each sheep so well, he calls them each by name and leads them out. He goes ahead of them and the sheep follow because they know his voice. There’s a real intimacy here that we can relate to in our family life. We love to be together and our ears are especially attuned to hear the voices of those we most love. Together we can focus on listening more closely to the voice of the Good Shepherd during Lent and carry that habit of close listening into the Easter season. If a child becomes distressed over the death of Jesus, we return to this parable where Jesus says He gives His life, it’s not taken from Him. We also remember together that Jesus is risen! (cgsusa.org) Here are some passages you might like to read with your family relating to the Good Shepherd:
John 10:3b-5, 10b-11, 14-16; Luke 15:4-6; Psalm 23:1
