IHM is a Stewardship Parish

"In this period of crisis today, it is important not to turn in on ourselves, burying our own talent, our spiritual, intellectual, and material riches, everything that the Lord has given us; but, rather to open ourselves, to be supportive, to be attentive to others. Set your stakes on great ideals, the ideals that enlarge the heart, the ideals of service that make your talents fruitful. Life is not given to us to be jealously guarded for ourselves, but is given to us so that we may give it in turn."

- Pope Francis,
to an audience on April 24, 2013

The First Sunday of Advent — Sunday, November 30, 2025

Stewardship Reflection IS 2:1-5; PS 122:1-9; ROM 13: 11-14; MT 24:37-44

Today we begin the beautiful season of Advent — a season of preparation. For what are we preparing? The celebration of the birth of our Savior, and the anticipation of His second coming.

These are weighty tasks with eternal consequences. So, let us as Christian stewards make the words of the Prophet Isaiah our motto for the season: “Come, let us climb the Lord’s mountain to the house of the God of Jacob, that he may instruct us in his ways and we may walk in his paths.”

In the weeks leading up to Christmas, it seems everywhere we turn we are pushed to spend more, do more, entertain more, and generally rush around at a frantic pace — all to create a “perfect” Christmas day. In contrast to this worldly pressure, the Church’s guidance to use these weeks as a time to focus on our spiritual lives can indeed seem like a mountain climb.

But the intentional and wise use of the gift of time is exactly what the Christian steward is called to do, and with even greater intensity during Advent. How can we use our time to prepare for a holy celebration of Jesus’ birth on Dec. 25 and for his second coming at a date we do not know?

We can push back against the world’s pressure to have the “perfect Christmas.” Scale back on the material kind of gift-giving, the complicated menus, the unessential trappings of the season so that we have more time for the spiritual preparations: Confession, weekday Mass, adoration, family prayer time, lighting the Advent wreath, acts of kindness.

It may feel like a mountain climb, but in the end, we will be prepared to celebrate a truly meaningful Christmas, we will have become more like our Savior, and we will be ready for Him to come again. Let’s go climb the Lord’s mountain!

It's not too late to support the Thanksgiving Day Collection. This collection benefits the 2nd Mile Fund which is collected through the Ellis County Ministerial Alliance (ECMA) and are administered by First Call for Help. All funds stay in Hays and the Ellis county area. The funds are used to aid transients traveling through Hays with gas, food, and occasionally a night stay at a motel. The funds also assist local families with utilities, rent, and occasional food vouchers in a time of need. If you are not able to attend Thanksgiving Day Mass and would like to contribute to the 2nd Mile fund please use a donation envelope found in the Gathering Space or mark an envelope "2nd Mile Fund" and place in the collection. Make checks payable to: Immaculate Heart of Mary. As the Gospel calls us to social justice for our brothers and sisters, please join us and give generously.

College Scholarships! Great news for students in the Diocese of Salina!

There are three scholarship opportunities available for the 2026-2027 school year. The application process is online and opens November 1, 2025.

December 24 & 31, 2025 — No Class—Christmas Break!!!

How to Advent Series - 1st Week of Advent Advent Family Experience

What is Advent, anyway? A countdown to Christmas? Mini-Lent? Sweater season? An acceptable excuse to eat 24 tiny chocolates out of 24 tiny compartments?

In this first episode of How to Advent, we learn about why Advent is a season of longing as well as hope – and how Advent calendars have anything to do with celebrating this season as a Catholic! As we await the birth of the Messiah, how can we better live in this spirit of hope and anticipation?

FHSU Christmas Choir Concert December 7 6:30pm at St. Joseph Catholic Church

Start the advent season on a glorious note with the FHSU choirs: Fort Hays Singers, Concert Choir, and Smoky Hill Chorale; at the 39th annual Christmas Choir Concert. Time and place are NEW this year:
6:30pm at St. Joseph Catholic Church.

In addition to the FHSU Choirs, there will be selections by Tom Meagher-organ, the Dawson brass duo, the FHSU flutes, the FHSU brass, and several numbers by FHSU music faculty. A highlight of this annual concert is the singing of traditional carols by the entire assemblage of audience, guests, and performers, accompanied by the wonderful pipe organ at St. Joseph. This concert is free and open to the public.
