IHM is a Stewardship Parish

"In this period of crisis today, it is important not to turn in on ourselves, burying our own talent, our spiritual, intellectual, and material riches, everything that the Lord has given us; but, rather to open ourselves, to be supportive, to be attentive to others. Set your stakes on great ideals, the ideals that enlarge the heart, the ideals of service that make your talents fruitful. Life is not given to us to be jealously guarded for ourselves, but is given to us so that we may give it in turn."

- Pope Francis,
to an audience on April 24, 2013

Twenty Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Sunday, September 21, 2025

Stewardship Reflection Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time AM 8:4-7; PS 113:1-2, 4-8;1 TM 2:1-8; LK 16:1-13 or LK 6:10-13

After today's readings, we can't say we have not been warned about the dangers of mixed-up priorities. God's Word is so very clear today on the necessity of putting Him first in all areas of our lives.

We see this in the First Reading from Amos. The Lord has harsh words for those who would take advantage of the poor and whose priorities are not aligned with God's.

In the Second Reading from St. Paul's letter to Timothy, Paul gives us the antidote to the self-centeredness condemned in our First Reading. The antidote is to imitate Christ, "who gave Himself as a ransom for all." Rather than thinking of Himself and how to "get ahead," Christ gave Himself away — completely — for our sake. That is how we are to live.

In our Gospel passage from Luke, the Lord shows us how to bridge the gap between worldly thinking and priorities and eternal thinking and priorities. Jesus tells the parable of the corrupt but clever steward who is about to be fired when the master discovers the steward has been squandering his property. Realizing his imminent unemployed status, the clever steward reaches out to the various debtors of his master to wheel and deal with them, making friends who would look out for him when he became jobless.

What if we put that kind of effort into our own tasks as good stewards of all God's gifts to us? Into our ministries, into the ways we could make more time for prayer as individuals, as couples, as families, and as a parish? What if we got as creative as the "bad steward" in the use of our finances so that we could give more generously to the poor and the advancement of God's kingdom on the earth? That's our lesson and our challenge.

Kolbe Prison Ministries

With the blessings of Bishop Vincke, a Catholic men's retreat was conducted in the Ellsworth Correctional Facility by Kolbe Prison Ministries (KPM) a few weeks ago. This three-day retreat was held on July 10-12, and was attended by 39 Catholic men, and about 20 volunteers. The retreat had a very significant impact on the residents and most of the residents expressed this at the close of the retreat. What a great success!

Many residents see Christ and return to Him through these deeply spiritual experiences. Volunteers will now be conducting a Catholic retreat at the other remaining prison in our Salina Diocese, the Norton Correctional Facility, on October 22-24. We are once again seeking your support for this vital work. The devil is at work within the walls of the prison, and prayers are imperative to bring the hope of Jesus Christ to these men.

There are three ways to help support this retreat: prayer, as a volunteer, or with financial support. Feel free to donate through the church collection by marking an envelope "KPM". The ministry must raise funds to provide meals and supplies (Bibles, rosaries, etc.) for the residents. To learn more about this life-changing opportunity and how you can help, please reach out to a representative of the Core Team of Kolbe Prison Ministries, Glen Suppes, at glenjsuppes@gmail.com or Craig Cummins, ccummins@mindspring.com. You can find out more about KPM here: <https://kolbeprisonministries.org/>. We could use a few good men willing to join us inside the prison.

The Corporal Works of Mercy are found in the teachings of Jesus and give us a model for how we should treat all others, as if they were Christ in disguise. Matthew 25:35 "I was in prison and you came to visit me."

Canon law states that parents should have their children baptized in the first few weeks; as soon as possible after birth (Canon Law 867). Since we have no associate pastor, baptism classes will be held every quarter.
